A UNIQUE INSTITUTION:

It is an institute where students from many different colleges could study and live together in preparation for careers related to science. Our college offers education beyond frontiers. Ever since its foundation at the very start of it, our College has had the mission to make well selected graduate students understand the basics of science in all its dimensions. We simply do not teach for art's sake, but to prepare them for leadership functions requiring a strategic understanding of scientific issues. The College fulfills this function by constantly adapting its programmes (also keeping in mind the university guidelines) and the composition of its teaching faculty to modern developments, and by providing them with a very
